ROBERTS PILOTS THREE WINNERS AT KEENELAND

COURT DANCE VICTRESS

Defeats Merry Lassie and Inhale in Jamaica Feature.

G. D. Widener Miss Stages Fractious Exhibition at Gate and Delays Start of Briarwood Purse.

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 19.—Court Dance, one of the most consistent winners among the 1937 two-year-old fillies, returned to competition at Jamaica this afternoon and carried George D. Widener's familiar light and dark blue hoops to a decisive score over Wheatley Stable's Merry Lassie in the featured Briarwood Purse, a three-year-old filly test of six furlongs. At the end the chestnut daughter of Jamestown—Flag Dance was a length and one-half in advance of the Wheatley filly, which in turn beat Jock Whitney's Inhale three lengths for second place. The winner was 13 to 5, with the runner-up odds-on.

All three fillies, candidates for the stakes for their age and sex this spring, were making their first starts of the new season. Court Dance completed the three-quarters in 1:14 and carried 113 pounds, getting three pounds from the runner-up and Inhale. All the races were run in trotting-horse time due to the muddy track conditions.

LARGE CROWD PRESENT.

A crowd of near-Saturday proportions turned out under sunny skies to see the Tuesday offerings, but they fared only in so-so fashion in trying to pick proper favorites. The week-day attendances at Jamaica these days are larger than for Saturdays a few seasons back and the meeting begins like a record-breaker in this department.

Court Dance, handled by the left-handed Wayne Wright, kept the five starters in the feature at the gate for a few minutes while she staged a catch-as-catch-can exhibition with George Cassidy's assistants. War Admiral could have done no better job of giving these gents a headache. Finally she was banished to the outside and gained a step two lengths off the field. The maid from Erdenheim quickly went to the inside and was lapped on Inhale and Merry Lassie for a few strides. Then as Merry Lassie went into a clear lead she was going along under steadying restraint in second place, with Inhale a distant third and the other two never in the running.

WRIGHT MAKES MOVE.

Halfway around the turn Wright made his move and the Widener mare went to Merry Lassie on the outside entering the short front stretch. She was not unduly pressed from the eighth post home to score by a length and one-half. Longden went to the whip on the Wheatley filly, one which had a better record than the winner last year, but it was of no avail and he put up his stick. Inhale was third in an even effort all the way, but three lengths off the first two and never a serious menace after going a furlong.

STAGEHAND'S LATEST WORK

Gallops Mile and an Eighth in Company With The Chief.

Milky Way Farm Stable's Tiger Only Other Important Derby Candidate Seen on the Track.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 19.—Measuring up to advance notices in their first long workouts since arriving here from California, the Derby favorite, Stagehand, and his formidable stable companion, The Chief, also scheduled to carry Maxwell Howard's colors in the sixty-fourth running of Kentucky's great turf event at Churchill Downs on May 7, travelled a mile and a furlong together in 1:57 this morning. Considering that the two Ohio candidates were only mildly urged during a brief part of the trial, the workouts were about the best by Derby horses prepping here.

As showers yesterday afternoon had no perceptible affect on the track and skies were cloudless this morning, Earl Sande was favored by good conditions for this important training of the Howard three-year-olds. As none of the other important Derby hopes housed at the local track were called on for anything more than light exercise, Stagehand and The Chief had the Derby training stage practically to themselves.

SHORT GALLOP.

The Milky Way Farm's Tiger, winner of the Arkansas Derby and highly regarded for the local race, was the only other prominent eligible to breeze, but his work was confined to three furlongs, trainer Robert McGarvey, intending to send him a longer distance tomorrow. Hard held, he ran the three-eighths in :39 and for the first time wore blinkers.

Gangplank, a reserve candidate in Mrs. Payne Whitney's Greentree Stable, which will place chief reliance in Redbreast, went three-quarters in 1:16⅗ and galloped out seven-eighths in 1:31.

As is his program, Sande had Stagehand and The Chief on the track shortly after 6 o'clock. Stagehand had Jack Westrope in the saddle, who will pilot the son of Sickle and Stagecraft in the Derby, while Harry Woods was astride The Chief, a son of Pennant and Transit. Following a gallop, the

WAR ADMIRAL WORKS IN MUD

Champion at Home in Any Footing and Over Any Track—Tatterdemalion Gallops 3-4 Mile.

JAMAICA, N. Y., April 19.—The rain of Monday night and a sloppy condition of the various training grounds on Long Island yesterday morning prevented trainers from doing much with their horses, but several were under saddle in useful exercises.

The champion, War Admiral, was one of these, and George Conway permitted the mighty atom to breeze for six furlongs through the sloppy going in 1:24. All tracks look alike to the son of Man o' War and Brushup and he was eager to run all the way.

The only engagement made for the great four-year-old at the present Jamaica meeting is in the Excelsior Handicap and it is questionable if he will be sent to the post for that race.

Another that was on the track at Belmont Park and a candidate for the Excelsior was Thomas J. Healey's Tatterdemalion, winner of the Tropical Handicap, the final big prize of the long Florida season. The sturdy son of St. Germans and Elf was only breezed six furlongs, but he is always at home in the sloppy going and he splashed along over the distance in 1:19⅗, hard held.

CHILCUTT OMAHA STARTER

Ex-Jockey Replaces Ruby White at Ak-Sar-Ben Track.

Served as Assistant to Eddie Thomas for Seven Years—Plenty of Horses for Meeting.

OMAHA, Neb., April 19.—Noel Chilcutt, the young Oklahoman, who back in 1927 was the second leading rider at the Omaha Ak-Sar-Ben running race meeting, is coming back to the Nebraska metropolis—but not as a jockey. The 28-year-old Chilcutt will be in the starter's box to yell "come on" when the 1938 meeting gets under way May 28, W. H. Schellberg, chairman of the racing committee, announced.

Young Chilcutt replaces Ruby White, originally scheduled to replace Jack Hodgins as starter. White has informed Ak-Sar-Ben officials he will be unable to serve; so Chilcutt was promptly engaged.

Now starter at Agua Caliente, Chilcutt comes highly recommended. For the past seven years he has been serving under that grand old man of the starter's box, Eddie Thomas, who used to shoo the thoroughbreds on their way at Ak-Sar-Ben meetings back in the days when Charley Irwin, Benny Creech and Ben Jones were engaging in their feuds here.

WEIGHT INCREASES.

Chilclutt had to hang up his tack because of that bane of all the little riders—overweight. He couldn't keep his poundage down, but he wouldn't desert the track. Taken in hand by Eddie Thomas, Chilcutt worked up from assistant starter to a starter in his own right.

With opening day not so far in the offing, Ak-Sar-Ben officials are readying the horse plant and with stable applications coming in daily, it seems certain that there'll be plenty of horses under roof when the meeting gets under way.

Many horses that raced at the Oaklawn Park meeting at Hot Springs have been shipped to Omaha, while several carloads have arrived from New Orleans. The big push is scheduled for early next month.

SEABISCUIT LEAVES FOR EAST ON THURSDAY

SAN MATEO, Calif., April 19.—The West Coast will bid adieu to the mighty Seabiscuit Thursday afternoon. He will get away at 2 p. m. and travel by Union Pacific, via Reno, Ogden, Cheyenne and Chicago. Two carloads of horses, all of which will bear the C. S. Howard colors in the East, will accompany Seabiscuit. The lot will be in charge of trainer Tom Smith and will be consigned to Pimlico, where Seabiscuit will be a starter in the Dixie Handicap if he ships well. Jockey "Red" Pollard will go east to ride Seabiscuit in the Dixie and in his match race with War Admiral.

POMPOON'S LONG WORK

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., April 19.—J. H. Louchheim's Pompoon was again seen in a trial this morning at Pimlico in preparation for his engagement in the Dixie. The son of Pompey and Oonagh was caught in his mile and one-eighth test over a sloppy track in the following fractions :25⅘, :51⅕, 1:17⅗, 1:31⅖, 1:45⅗ and 2:01⅖. Under the guidance of jockey Johnny Bejshak, he turned in his performance very handily.

WAR ADMIRAL THE FAVORITE

SAN MATEO, Calif., April 19.—William P. Kyne today received word that a well known Kansas City commissioner had offered to lay $11,000 against $10,000 and take War Admiral against Seabiscuit in their match-race. Those odds are considered rather short by the more-shrewd speculators, who expect that Seabiscuit will be at least 6 to 5 the day of the race.

DOUBLE FOR HEADLEY

Old Nassau Outruns Galsun in the Rookwood Purse.

Good Sized Crowd Enjoys Lexington Sport Under Pleasant Weather Conditions—Track Slow.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 19.—With a good-sized and enthusiastic crowd enjoying the sport under pleasant weather conditions, although the track was off, due to showers yesterday, Keeneland started its second short week of racing this afternoon with the Rookwood Purse as the principal attraction. Run over the mile and one-sixteenth distance, it provided an interesting contest, with Old Nassau gaining a handy victory to give Hal Price Headley a double for the day and jockey Porter Roberts a triple.

Old Nassau won by two lengths over Calumet Farm's Galsun, as A. B. Hancock's Recussion followed at the latter's heels. Valted, a slight favorite over Old Nassau and Galsun, was fourth, while Whipowill and Royal Sortie completed the field.

The previous Headley winner was Copy Cat, a Kentucky Derby eligible, also ridden by Roberts. His first successful ride was on Romaunt.

TRACK BECOMES GOOD.

A slow track prevailed for the first three races, but, drying out steadily, it was good thereafter. However, Old Nassau was held to 1:48⅘ in winning the Rookwood. In close quarters in the run to the first turn, the four-year-old son of Pharamond II.—Miss Tony was guided to the outside when the chance appeared, but Roberts had him under restraint until leaving the back stretch.

In the meantime Whipowill and Valted showed the way, but Old Nassau went past them on the second turn when making his run. He came to the stretch with an advantage of two lengths, which he maintained under steady urging to the end. Galsun was reserved in third position until the final quarter but although making up some ground when called upon he was unable to trouble the Headley colt, although staving off the late bid of Recussion on the inside.

Although bearing out badly on the turn, the Greentree Stable's Romaunt, the favorite, was good enough to graduate from the ranks of juvenile maiden platers in the

KURTSINGER OUT OF THE KENTUCKY DERBY

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 19.—It became apparent here today that Charles Kurtsinger, Louisville jockey, who has ridden two previous winners of the Kentucky Derby, would not be able to ride in this year's running of the stake unless his employer, the Brookmeade Stable, lifts its suspension of the rider for disregarding instructions. Confirmation of Kurtsinger's suspension was received at Churchill Downs today from the New York racing commission.

According to C. Bruce Head, one of the Churchill Downs stewards, the New York turf body ruled that the action of Kurtsinger's employer would stand until it is lifted by the stable. The suspension will be recognized in Kentucky.

Kurtsinger was suspended for an alleged violation of instructions issued by Hugh Fontaine, trainer of the Brookmeade Stable, which is maintained by Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloane. The rider is said to have ignored Fontaine's order to remain in New York by leaving for Kentucky to ride H. P. Headley's Menow at Keeneland last Friday. Kurtsinger was to have had the mount on Menow in the Derby on May 7.

Kurtsinger Played Hookey
May Miss Derby Chance
Fitzsimmons Colts Show Well
Stagehand, Menow Odds Cut

By the simple expedient of asking permission, Charles Kurtsinger would not have gotten himself into the situation which now prevents him from riding. The "Flying Dutchman" gets one of the largest retainers of any jockey in the country from the Brookmeade Stable and, under his contract and the rule of racing, he must take orders from his employer or her representative who, in this case, is trainer Hugh Fontaine. Kurtsinger apparently did not ask Fontaine if he could leave New York to go to Keeneland to ride Menow last Friday and other jockeys were substituted on Brookmeade horses the following day at Jamaica, although the Louisville veteran was available. It is the custom to allow jockeys to go elsewhere for worthwhile engagements and some trainers will even let their riders go when they could use them at home, but approval has to be gained.

How long Kurtsinger will be kept down by the Brookmeade Stable is up to Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloane and trainer Fontaine. They could hold him inactive for the life of the contract if they so desired, but that is hardly likely. He may be prevented, however, from fulfilling engagements in the Kentucky Derby and in the War Admiral-Seabiscuit match, although his contract may have a special provision giving him the right to ride the Glen Riddle star in all his starts. It is up to Kurtsinger to make his peace with the Brookmeade folk and the quicker he does it the better for him. He has been around too long not to know better than to play hookey but, after he has been down a few days watching his fellow jockeys booting home those winners, Kurtsinger will realize only too well to whom he owes his allegiance.

Kurtsinger was given the mount on Menow last Friday because he had ridden the colt to victory in the Belmont Futurity and Champagne Stakes last fall, and Hal Price Headley liked the manner in which he handled the son of Pharamond II. and Alcibiades. He had not been engaged to ride Menow in any further races, although Headley probably would like to have him back at Keeneland if possible.

Undoubtedly Headley now is looking elsewhere for a capable jockey to ride Menow in the Mereworth Purse at the Lexington course Thursday and in the Blue Grass Stakes the following Thursday. Whoever gets the opportunity to pilot Menow in these engagements will have a good chance to be astride the colt in the Kentucky Derby if his work pleases Headley. Menow doesn't appear to be a difficult horse to ride, but particularly when he is trying for important races Headley selects the best jockey available.

James Fitzsimmons has yet to put the colors up on Fighting Fox, but the veteran Aqueduct trainer already has uncovered a trio of likely three-year-olds in the Wheatley Stable's Stormscud and Quick Devil and Ogden Phipps' Magic Hour, all of which are eligible to the Wood Memorial Stakes. The effort of Stormscud was the more impressive and he won his six furlongs dash Saturday in very fast time, but the manner in which Magic Hour graduated Monday must have pleased his connections greatly. The son of Sortie—One Hour, by Snob II., drew away in the stretch to score by six lengths, and his breeding suggests that he not only will improve, but will go over a longer distance of ground. Quick Devil's first outing of the session was at a mile and seventy yards, and he withstood a long drive with Wood Song to gain the verdict.

Latest quotations on the Kentucky Derby show that Stagehand is maintaining his position as the favorite, but his odds have been shortened, undoubtedly due to the fact that he made the long trip from Santa Anita to Churchill Downs in fine condition and made an impressive return to training. Menow received marked attention as a result of his fine race last week, while Fighting Fox has been held steady. In some instances Menow has superceded the Belair Stud colt as the second choice, but that position may be changed when the brother of Gallant Fox goes to the races. We wish to call attention of the future book operators that Sir Raleigh is being taken out of training and the Millsdale colt should be removed from their quotations. Sharp changes in the several future books may be expected daily as the Derby candidates at Jamaica, Havre de Grace and Keeneland are placed in competition.

OVAR KNIGHT'S SELECTIONS ARE LISTED ON THE LAST PAGE

GEORGE PALMER TO BEULAH

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., April 19.—George Palmer, who is serving in the judges' stand at Havre de Grace, has been appointed to relieve T. C. Bradley as presiding steward at Beulah Park, from May 16 to May 30, when the latter will be filling a similar position at Charles Town, W. Va. Palmer, before going to Columbus, will serve as starter at Radnor, Pa., for a two-day hunt meeting to be staged May 11 and 14.

THE CHIEF TO BE STARTER

Earl Sande to Ship Colt to Keeneland for His Engagement in Blue Grass Stakes.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 19.—Word was received by officials of Keeneland from Earl Sande that he will send Col. Maxwell Howard's The Chief here to fulfill his engagement in the $5,000 added Blue Grass Stakes, mile and a furlong test which will serve as the final day's attraction of the eleven-day meeting at the local course.

An effort was made by the Keeneland management to have Sande send the chestnut son of Pennant—Transit to Keeneland to compete in the Mereworth Purse on Tuesday, which is to engage such strong Kentucky Derby candidates as Hal Price Headley's Menow, Calumet Farm's Bull Lea, Dixiana's King's Heir and others.

However, Sande did not deem it advisable to transfer his charge from Churchill Downs where he has been in training since his arrival from Santa Anita, but stated that he contemplated vanning The Chief to Keeneland next Tuesday.

KOONTZ STRING AT DOWNS

Owner of Paulfred Farm to Campaign Stable at Louisville Under Trainer Ross Higdon.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 19.—The colors of Fred B. Koontz, one of the leading breeders of the Southwest, will be seen at Churchill Downs during the meeting opening a week from Saturday. The Koontz horses are here in charge of Ross Higdon, and the owner is heading a large party of Oklahoma racing enthusiasts coming here for Derby week.

At Koontz' Paulfred Farm, near Tulsa, there are more than sixty mares and the stallion, Pairbypair, while the horse Sweeping Light, also owned by Koontz and which was transferred to Kentucky following his season in the stud at Paulfred Farm, remains at Military Stock Farm, near Lexington.

Among the horses Higdon brought to Kentucky for spring racing are Miss Firefly, Contrast, Smiling Prince, Gay Bubble, Chatterfol, Banner Witch and Personable. Higdon said that he is sending about twelve to Aurora in about a week. Those horses will be transferred from the farm at Hot Springs.

Winner—B. f, by Jean Valjean—Glory of the Seas II., by Argosy (trained by A. Pelleteri; bred by Mr. H. C. Ragan). Winner entered to be claimed $2,500.

WENT TO POST—2:31. AT POST—1½ minutes.

Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same.

SEA SHELL, beginning quickly, was steered out into the firmer footing immediately after the start, came out into the middle of the track when straightened into the stretch and held on stoutly to stall off BARKER. The latter bettered his position on the outside and finished wearing down the winner steadily nearing the end. TIN DEVIL, sluggish in the early racing, settled into stride and finished stoutly after saving some ground on the stretch turn. WALLI failed to stay when the real test came. OF COURSE raced in the deep footing all the way and failed to rally when the leaders swung very wide on the stretch turn. POLLY FAIR tired after going three-eighths. ZELITONE was outrun. EMMA H. did not fancy the footing.

Scratched—55170 Flag Etta, 113.

Overweight—Zelitone, 3½ pounds.

WENT TO POST—3:01. AT POST—1 minute.

Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving.

APPREHEND, at home in the going, handled his weight nicely while racing in hand on the outside in the early running, moved up fast to engage the leaders, took command on the stretch turn to open up a good lead, then finished with speed in reserve. ICY WIND raced in the first flight, dropped back on the stretch turn and came again nearing the close. BROADSTEP was hurried to the front, shook off BALCONY, but tired in the stretch drive after being taken out into the firmer footing. SYLVIA G. was a strong contender while racing on the inside, but tired after five-eighths. GALLOPING raced evenly. DIZZY DAME broke slowly, then closed gamely. BALCONY quit. ALIT was outrun. MUCKLE DO could not threaten.

WENT TO POST—3:32. AT POST—5 minutes.

Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving.

BE JABBERS opened up a wide lead in the first quarter mile, was steered into the firmer footing, continued strongly and drew out without effort nearing the finish. TOWN CAR, racing forwardly from the start, failed to menace the winner when the real test came. CALAMEGA worked his way up stoutly after being slow to settle into his stride, but was unable to threaten the first two. HI-TIDE was in the first flight from the beginning, but was held perfectly safe. SCOUT ROSE tired after going five-eighths. NEEDMORE was always outrun. OLD MAIN ROAD raced evenly. RIVER DEE could not untrack himself. SPEAK was done after going three-eighths.

WENT TO POST—2:00. AT POST—3 minutes.

Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same.

ROMAUNT, going in his best form and improved with blinkers, lost ground on the stretch turn, came fast when straightened and outfinished LITTLE PINKEY. The latter, never far back and in close quarters early, improved his position through the field and wore down SLY KITTY soon after reaching the final eighth, but failed to last. GRAPE VINE worked her way forward steadily and finished strongly. ARBOREAL, never far back and on the inside after a quarter, showed a good effort. JAY HEART raced wide and had no mishaps. SLY KITTY sprinted into a good lead during the opening quarter and tired rapidly in the drive. HOLTON failed to keep up.

COPY CAT, going in his best form and hard hustled throughout, assumed a clear lead soon after the start, saved ground throughout, but required strenuous urging in the late stages to withstand the challenge of VOLO SNOW. The latter, never far out of it and strongly handled, improved his position gradually and was getting to the winner in the last sixteenth. DON COSSACK was fractious at the gate, broke with the leaders and was prominent all the way. NUTRUSH broke slowly, worked his way up through the field and closed strongly. AL-HIGH, away fast, dropped back soon after the start and never threatened thereafter. ETHICAL could not keep up and bore out on the stretch turn.

WENT TO POST—3:04½. AT POST—3 minutes.

Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same.

RANGE DUST, hustled along from the start, wore down EXPRESS after a quarter, was unable to draw clear, responded to strong urging in the last stages and held EXPRESS safe. The latter, rushed into the lead after a sixteenth, gave way to the winner, but held on gamely. BATTER took command at once, bore out soon afterward, raced wide to the stretch and made up ground in the final sixteenth. RUDE AWAKENING raced evenly and showed a good effort. TACK POINT had no mishaps. INDIGNANT tired. BUFFALO BILL and DONGY were outrun.

Overweight—Rude Awakening, 2 pounds; Dongy, 2.

FOURTH RACE 56518 April-19-38-Kee

WENT TO POST—3:36. AT POST—2½ minutes.

Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving.

SHINING HEELS sprinted into a clear lead early, increased her advantage under light urging and won easily. BUSTLE, never far back, was forced to race wide nearing the stretch turn, came fast when straightened, bore over on FOUNTAIN HEAD and finished strongly. FOUNTAIN HEAD, lucky to find room when improving his position, met interference approaching the final eighth and showed little thereafter. SISTER POLLY, used up in the pace, tired after five-eighths. ODDESA DON tired. DON MOSS came from well back. MR. DEINS, outrun for five-eighths, made up ground thereafter. FAIR SO raced wide early and showed little. GENEVRA M. had no mishaps. CARRYING TIME was outrun. COURTAWAY quit.

Scratched—51852 Broad Play, 109.

THREE-YEAR-OLD PROSPECTS OF 1938

WISE FOX—Bay Colt, by Gallant Fox—Minerva; owned by A. G. Tarn. Trained by A. G. Tarn.

(By NORRIS ROYDEN)

Only one race, but his last, qualifies Wise Fox for inclusion in this series while bringing him into consideration for the Kentucky Derby and similar events. That lone performance of merit was scored in the Louisiana Derby in which the son of Gallant Fox and Minerva, by Ambassador IV., bred by William Woodward but now owned by A. G. Tarn, ran the mile and one furlong in 1:51⅕ under 114 pounds to defeat Bunny Baby by a head as Sir Raleigh was a well-beaten third and Bourbon King fifth. If Wise Fox had shown similar efforts previously, he probably would not be getting so much attention now, but that performance was the result of sharp improvement and indicated thereby that he may become even more capable, particularly when he is asked to run over longer distances of ground.

The breeding of Wise Fox coupled with the manner in which he came around towards the end of the winter season gives him strong possibilities. On both sides of his family he is a colt that should improve after his first season. As far as he has gone, he has done just that and, being a half-brother to Faireno, a near-champion, if not the top three-year-old at the end of the 1932 season, Wise Fox deserves more opportunities to determine his exact status. He will get them, too, because Tarn is aiming him at the Kentucky Derby.

Wise Fox doesn't belong in the same category with Stagehand as yet, but he is another example of a horse that was a failure as a juvenile, finding himself as he went along, and especially when the distances were stretched out. Stagehand came to hand late and lacked the speed to go well in sprints, but while Wise Fox got in his own way as a youngster, he did develop some speed to learn what it was to finish in front.

Under James Fitzsimmons, Wise Fox did not reach the races until August at Saratoga. Unable to get close in starts there, he skipped the meeting at Aqueduct, Belmont and Jamaica to run four times at Empire City in October. He just wasn't able to produce speed enough to be troublesome, although finishing third on two occasions in maiden races.

Two months later, in his first start of the winter, Wise Fox finished first in a maiden race, at one mile, but was disqualified, and he laid away for another five weeks. Fitzsimmons was anxious to develop him into Flamingo Stakes timber, but the Gallant Fox colt failed to come around in three outings, and so was sold to Tarn.

In his first effort for the Canadian horseman, Wise Fox was second at Tropical Park to Time and Again in a dash of five and one-half furlongs, which he would have won but for being taken back out of trouble right after the start. Two days later he graduated in a six-furlong dash at the expense of Birdlea, Wise Counsel and similar fair three-year-olds. He then ran a mile and sixty yards in 1:44 under 116 pounds to win easily over Becky Bates, Birdlea and Lourdes, and Tarn was tempted to ship him to New Orleans.

In the Louisiana Derby Wise Fox followed Bunny Baby's pace closely to the stretch, where he wore her down in a long, hard drive, covering the distance within two-fifths of the track record. Sir Raleigh, which finished two lengths back, lost considerable ground in the race, while Bourbon King was almost knocked down on the first turn but, nevertheless, Wise Fox turned in an effort meriting attention.

From a breeding standpoint, he can develop into a topnotcher over a route. Gallant Fox was at home going a mile and one-quarter or two miles. Faireno, half-brother of Wise Fox, won the Belmont, Lawrence Realization and numerous other stakes, their dam, Minerva, being by Ambassador IV., from Arrowshaft, by Ogden, out of the stakes-winning Quiver. Improvement in Wise Fox may be expected, and if so, he'll be troublesome.

EXPLOSION INJURES TWO

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 19.—Three chemical tanks at the Barrett Company plant, one being a 75,000-gallon tank of creosote, exploded when the latter overturned and caught fire. As a result two workmen were seriously burned and six firemen were injured. The United States arsenal is located near the Barrett works.

KILLED TRIMMING TREE

William Kawitsch, employed by the Evanston Park Department, fell from a forty-foot oak tree Monday while trimming it at 2226 Central Avenue. He was rushed to St. Francis Hospital, but died of a skull fracture shortly after arriving there. Authorities explained that Kawitsch had fixed his life belt to a dead limb which broke.

Time, :23, :47⅘, 1:14⅗. Track muddy.

Winner—Ch. g, by Wise Counsellor—Sweet Mary, by Dick Welles (trained by H. Jacobs; bred by Mr. J. L. Holton). Winner entered to be claimed for $1,400.

WENT TO POST—2:32. AT POST—1½ minutes.

Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same.

SANDY BILL drew away into a long lead, was rated along steadily, saved ground all the way, but was doing his best at the end. SPEED, in near pursuit of the early pace, moved up steadily entering the stretch, but faltered in the final eighth. NO NANE was steered up on the outside rounding the stretch turn and finished fast. SEMAPHORE was outrun early, but finished with good courage. DARK PRINCE was shuffled back while on the inside in the early running. HIGH IMAGE raced evenly throughout. GRAND JESTER could not keep up. ROCKY MARGOT had no excuses.

Overweight—No Nane, 4 pounds.

WENT TO POST—2:58. AT POST—2½ minutes.

Start good and slow. Won ridden out; second and third driving.

CITADEL forced a fast early pace, raced SWING TIME into defeat, but was tiring through the final eighth and was kept under urging to the end. OUTBOARD worked her way up on the outside, came around the leaders entering the stretch and finished well on the outside. LACE REIGH was outrun early, saved ground entering the stretch and finished well. SWING TIME showed early speed while saving ground, but tired badly when placed under pressure entering the stretch. CARMONA had no mishaps in the running. MOLLIE SWAIN could not keep up.

THIRD RACE

WENT TO POST—3:22. AT POST—3½ minutes.

Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same.

ROMAN HERO improved his position steadily on the inside, responded to urging in the stretch and finished with a rush to wear down ROYAL TASTE in the final drive. The latter forced the pace from the start, disposed of KING COTTON and held on well to the end. CAPULET, a forward factor all the way, finished with determination. KING COTTON was rushed up fast on the outside, assumed command, but quit badly in the stretch. HASH raced greenly from the start. WEST HADDON dwelt at the start and was away slowly. PERSUASIVE could not keep up. HIGHSCOPE showed a flash of early speed.

Scratched—Johnstown, 116; 54786^{3}General Howes, 116.

Winner—B. g, by Ariel—Halki, by The Manager (trained by T. Malone; bred by Mr. C. Bacharach). Winner entered to be claimed for $2,250.

WENT TO POST—3:46. AT POST—3½ minutes.

Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same.

CEILING moved into command after the break and showed speed throughout, shook off GREY FLUFF in the stretch and held PENDENCIERO safe in the final drive. The latter improved his position steadily on the inside and finished with good courage. GREY FLUFF, in nearest pursuit of the pace from the start, was placed under pressure entering the stretch, but could not overhaul the leader and tired. HARVESTING, fractious at the post, showed an even effort. BEAUEDWINA could not keep up. CHESTNUT ANN was outrun from the start.

Scratched—55346½ Bellum, 121; 54699 Sunset Girl, 111.

WENT TO POST—4:11. AT POST—5 minutes.

Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same.

COURT DANCE, fractious at the post, was placed on the outside of the stalls, followed the pace closely, moved up fast in the stretch, wore down MERRY LASSIE and drew away under pressure. MERRY LASSIE displayed high early speed while saving ground and had no mishaps. INHALE was taken in hand when outrun and made up some ground through the final eighth. NIGHT MIST could not menace at any stage. SLATTERN could not keep up.

Scratched—55194^{3}Join Us, 113; 51647^{3}Alpenglow, 113; 52327 Watchcase, 108.

WENT TO POST—4:36. AT POST—7½ minutes.

Start bad and slow. Won driving; second and third easily.

PORTUNUS moved into contention with a rush when settled in the back stretch, assumed command when urged, withstood determined opposition from LOLSCHEN in the stretch and proved best at the end. LOLSCHEN raced forwardly from the start, made a determined bid when straightened out, but hung after getting to the leader. PRE WAR raced close up, but on the outside from the start and had no excuses. GREAT BLAZE moved up with determination rounding the far turn and faltered. FRISCO KID had no excuses. MAD DUCHESS was outrun. TEDDY BEAU showed a flash of early speed. DISTRACTING wheeled to the inside at the start and galloped far back of his field. PATTI wheeled at the start and was pulled up.

Overweight—Distracting, 3 pounds.

OFFERS FOR GOV. CHANDLER

Owner J. C. Metz Refuses to Part With Son of Reigh Count—Eligible for Derbys.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 19.—Several attractive offers have been received by J. C. Metz, Newport, Ky., sportsman, for the three-year-old Gov. Chandler, which was named for Kentucky's chief executive, A. B. "Happy" Chandler, and is a candidate for the sixty-fourth running of the Kentucky Derby.

Although Metz was reticent to disclose who tendered the offers for the son of Reigh Count, which is receiving his preparation for the $50,000 added event here at Keeneland, he admitted that he was considering the offers.

Gov. Chandler finished third behind Tiger and Silver Sarah in the Arkansas Derby a few weeks ago after experiencing considerable trouble, and since being shipped to Keeneland the chestnut gelding has displayed several impressive trials. It is the intention of his owner-trainer to start Gov. Chandler at least once and perhaps twice during the current meeting at the Lexington track.

In addition to being a candidate for the Kentucky Derby, Gov. Chandler has been nominated for the Illinois Derby, $12,000 added feature of the Fox Valley Jockey Club's season at Aurora and is eligible for the $5,000 added Diamond State Stakes and Kent Handicap, $10,000 added, which are on the Delaware Park summer program.

CHURCHILL DOWNS NOTES

Jockey Robert Finnerty, a recent arrival from New Orleans, has been galloping horses here several days and will resume riding during the meeting.

It is likely that trainer Robert McGarvey will send several of the Milky Way Farm three-year-olds to Keeneland this week, all depending upon track conditions. With Mrs. McGarvey he witnessed Saturday's racing at Keeneland.

C. Hyde Smith, trainer of the Oddesa Farm stable which is represented at Keeneland, was here Sunday inspecting the horses he left at Churchill Downs in charge of Robert Freeman.

Clem Thiesen, who has a wide acquaintance among Kentucky horsemen, was at Churchill Downs Sunday when he spent the morning with Roscoe Goose.

The five-year-old Crack Brigade gelding Don Creole, a handicap star in the Oddesa Farms stable, has been galloping here for weeks and now is ready to begin breezing. According to trainer C. Hyde Smith, Don Creole is being prepared for an early summer return to competition.

Mae Whisk, recently acquired by John Best, was purchased from the Maemere Farm by that Memphis turfman at Miami. She was shipped here with One Night, also belonging to Best.

According to a report received here from Columbus, the useful sprinter, The Rew, owned by Miss M. Hodge, died at Beulah Park, presumably from illness contracted en route from New Orleans. Confirmation of this report, however, was lacking here.

It was also reported that Francesco, four-year-old handicap performer in the Darby Dan Farm stable, reached Columbus from Florida in ailing condition.

While in Lexington Saturday, Anthony Pelleteri decided to return Mower and Rye Beach to training. With two fillies which were turned out during the winter, they will be sent to Jack Hodgins, who has a division of the Pelleteri stable here.

Ernie Mooar, former owner who wintered in California, arrived here from New Orleans, where he stopped off for a visit with relatives. He will remain for the meeting.

Veronique, a daughter of In Memoriam, has been presented to Henry Knight, owner of Almahurst Farm, by S. Bryant Ott. She will be used for breeding purposes. Knight was a visitor at Churchill Downs several days ago.

When his stable is fully assembled at Churchill Downs, T. C. Piatt will have twenty-five horses at Churchill Downs. He already has five here with the remaining twenty due after the close of the Keeneland season.

DR. TOWNSEND PARDONED

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 19.—Just as he was about to enter the local jail here to begin serving a thirty-day sentence for contempt of a House committee, Dr. Francis E. Townsend, old age pension proponent, was pardoned by President Roosevelt. It was an unconditional pardon, thereby nullifying the $100 fine as well as the prison term.

AIR TRAFFIC INCREASES

Composite figures, as reported to the Air Transport Association of America by sixteen major air lines, show that during the month of March passenger traffic increased approximately 30 per cent over the previous month and more than 15 per cent over March, 1937.

CARRY THEIR OWN MENAGERIE

Pets in J. W. Parrish Barn Represent Dogs, Chickens, Cats and Goats —Monkey Mascot.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 19.—Stable mascots are common, but a menagerie is something else. That's what the J. W. Parrish stable represents to some extent.

Trainer John M. Goode is a distinct lover of animals and the veteran has surrounded himself with various and sundry. In addition to the twelve horses that are stabled in a barn at Keeneland can be found a goat, several dogs, a cat or two and a flock of chickens.

All go with the stable when it pulls up stakes and heads for another point of racing. There are various reasons for stable mascots. Chiefly they are used for a companion of some temperamental equine which might cast all discretion to the winds unless he is provided with a "buddy."

LIKES MASCOT.

In this instance Johnny Goode, a veteran Kentucky trainer and developer of many topnotch thoroughbreds in his day, likes to have them around. However, the Goode stable isn't the only one with a mascot.

C. W. Pershall's stable, trained by former jockey Tommy Root, carries a monkey along which not only serves as a mascot but plays the role of watchman at the barn. "Jocko," as the monkey is dubbed, has traveled far and wide with Root in the past three years.

Practically every stable has a mongrel of some description present, but out at fashionable Calumet Farm, where Bull Lea is receiving his prep for the approaching Kentucky Derby, there's a fawn greyhound. Perhaps this type of dog was selected as a mascot to imply the speed of the thoroughbreds of Warren Wright's establishment.

LEADING AMERICAN TRAINERS

H. G. Bedwell holds undisputed possession of first place in the leading trainers' standing, passing A. E. Alexandra, with whom he was tied a week ago this time. Bedwell has twenty-seven winners, one more than Alexandra's total. Hirsch Jacobs came through with a winner on each of the first two days' racing at Jamaica and therefore is in third place with a total of twenty-four. Following are the leading American trainers for the period of racing from January 1 to April 17, inclusive:

HAVRE DE GRACE

Winner—Blk. c, by Sickle—Fib, by Westy Hogan (trained by M. Lowenstein; bred by Mrs. P. Corning). Winner entered to be claimed for $2,500.

WENT TO POST—4:06. AT POST—8 minutes.

Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same.

NIGHT INTRUDER, in the thick of contention early and showing good ability in the footing, raced to the leaders stoutly on the turn, came strongly when reaching the stretch and wore down NO ENDING inside the final sixteenth. NO ENDING was prominent early under stout urging, raced to the front when reaching the stretch, but could not withstand the winner. PETIT JEAN raced well placed and came strongly in the final drive. COGIE was rushed hard to gain a short lead while racing in the deep footing, was unable to get clear and tired in the stretch drive. MAXINE dropped far out of contention, then closed with a belated rush. MEXICO CITY raced well. SONGSTOP was done early. WAY OUT raced well for a half mile, then quit. The rider of MARINE MAID could not do his mount justice when he lost the use of his stirrup irons.

Scratched—56281 Ghost Train, 119; 54064 Nymph, 112; 56374 Room Service, 112; 55512 Candy Hero, 113.

Overweight—Mexico City, 2 pounds; Way Out, 1; Marine Maid, 5.

Corrected weight—Night Intruder, 117; Cogie, 113.

WENT TO POST—4:46. AT POST—2½ minutes.

Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving.

RED PEPPER, away nicely, moved into the lead soon after the start, was kept in the better footing all the way and drew out smartly when straightened into the stretch. SPRING MEADOW was rushed to his field rapidly after the break, made a stout effort rounding the turn and held on well when finishing in the deeper footing on the inside through the stretch. FAIR COMPANY bettered her position on the outside and was going gamely at the end. BILLMAR was strongly handled all the way, but failed to threaten seriously. ABDICATE showed speed for five-eighths, then tired. CACODEMON had a rough trip. DINNER JACKET met with slight interference on the turn out of the back stretch.

Scratched—56235 Newark, 114; 56258 Upstream, 120; (51684)Toddle On, 119.

Overweight—Dinner Jacket, 1 pound.

WENT TO POST—5:21. AT POST—½ minute.

Start good and slow. Won ridden out; second and third driving.

DAUBER, sluggish in the early racing, was permitted to gain his best stride before being placed to a drive, circled his field in the last half mile and came out swiftly after disposing of the leaders in the last sixteenth. BLIND EAGLE, rated close to the leaders, challenged strongly in the last five-sixteenths and held on strongly to the end. BUNNY BABY forced a steady pace in the first seven-eighths, gained a slight lead midway of the stretch, but tired in the final eighth. CREPE showed much speed while setting the pace, raced in the best footing, but was not good enough. CHAPS failed to rally to punishment when shaken up

EVERGOLD outran his field to the first turn, was steadied until challenged, rallied nicely and outstayed HIGH TENSION. HIGH TENSION followed closest to the winner from the beginning, made a strong bid entering the stretch, then hung nearing the close. SILENT SHOT, rated back of the leaders, rallied when shaken up and closed gamely on the inside of the leaders. MIDSHIPMAN passed tiring horses in the last quarter mile. BLACK FALCON raced well for three-quarters, then tired. SHOT UP was always outrun. ROYAL TREAD had no excuses.

WENT TO POST—4:06½. AT POST—1 minute.

Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving.

OLD NASSAU, taken under light restraint early and kept on the outside, disposed of VALTED when ready, drew into a commanding lead swiftly and was never in danger. GALSUN, well up from the start and under light restraint, lost ground on the stretch turn, continued gamely under strong urging, but could not threaten the winner. RECUSSION began sluggishly, improved her position gradually and closed strongly. VALTED forced the early pace, gained a slight lead before going a half mile, but tired when challenged. WHIPOWILL had speed for five-eighths, then tired rapidly. ROYAL SORTIE lacked speed and was never a factor.

WENT TO POST—4:35½. AT POST—2 minutes.

Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same.

PALCO bore over on the lower turn, disposed of BUTTER BEANS after a half mile, drew clear rapidly, responded to strong urging when tiring and had little left, but withstood CHANCE KING. The latter worked his way forward steadily, swerved when put to pressure in the stretch, came fast when straightened and was wearing down the winner at the end. HUNTERDON, a strong factor from the start, held on well. WHIPSTITCH made up ground. REAL ONE, shuffled back soon after the break, showed nothing thereafter. BUTTER BEANS quit.

DARK MIST, away slowly, worked her way up steadily, responded readily to strong urging in the final quarter, came around the leaders and, taking command swiftly, won with something in reserve. POTTAGE, on the outside throughout and hard hustled, improved her position steadily and showed a good effort. VICTORY MISS was much used in the first three-quarters and tired in the stretch. ENTREE, away fast, assumed a big lead quickly and saved much ground throughout, but tired after seven-eighths. GLAD WINGS, in close quarters early and forced back, improved her position when clear. HEARTY raced well up for three-quarters, then tired. ALBUQUERQUE quit.

Start good and slow. Won handily; second and third driving.

LYSANDER was sent after the leaders during the back stretch run and, gradually forging to the front when ready after going half the distance, was never in serious danger in the stretch. BON HAMBURG waited too long before making his move, then came very fast on the outside and was going strongest at the end. MARIA JULIET also made her move too late, but finished gamely. EASTER TOMMY was never a contender, although closing some ground. ARTHUR W. and SKY GREY were used up making the pace and were done after going three-quarters.

Overweight—Maria Juliet, 1 pound; Grimbsy, 1.

Start good and slow. Won ridden out; second and third driving.

BOSWORTH was close up from the start and, drawing away from the field leaving the back stretch, was never in serious danger, although ridden out at the end. CHIANA, in close quarters on the inside in the early stages, raced up on horses heels repeatedly and had little chance until she came to the outside, then finished fast and was gaining. KING ROYALE made a mild bid in the stretch. BOSTON BROOK was taken back in the early running and did not get going until the race was practically over. WHISPER raced with the leaders in the early stages, then dropped back suddenly rounding the far turn and was never dangerous thereafter. KENT started from outside the gate and had speed for a half mile, then tired.

Overweight—Quel Jeu, 2 pounds.

FLASHING COLORS beat the others away and, continuing well after being headed by TOROBANG, caught the latter again when ready in the stretch to take a good lead and had enough left to hold SIR WINDSOR. The latter, never far away, staged a game finish and was gaining. GALLANT EAGLE was permitted to drop many lengths back of the field soon after the start, then closed ground gradually in the last half mile and was going fairly well at the finish. TOROBANG tired in the stretch. SASSAFRAS raced below his best form. BRUSTIGERT was in close quarters on the inside in the early running.

BAY MEADOWS NOTES

Coming out of an enforced retirement to fill the gap in jockey ranks left vacant by Thompson, is Ralph Neves. Neves has just completed an exceptionally harsh six months' suspension inflicted at Bay Meadows last fall. Another rider that will accept mounts is Willie Root, who knows something about lengthy suspensions himself, having been on the ground for a lengthy period, a couple of years ago, for claiming the apprentice allowance to which he was not entitled. Root has been riding at Agua Caliente.

Cloud D'Or, among the popular sprint performers for several years in this region, will be on the shelf for an indefinite period. Failing to withstand the routine of training, prompted trainer W. T. Westrope to blister the veteran performer, which will be absent from competition until late this summer.

Aside from the Howard string, several other stables have departed or will soon depart to test their strength in the East. The Burnell Stable, in charge of trainer Roy Selden, left for Maryland, while Frank Carreaud, famed as the owner of Time Supply, is sending several head to the same point. Joe Brooks has shipped six horses to Rockingham while Joe Wood, ex-jockey, sent his two head to New England.

Bay Meadows began its final week of the spring season Tuesday afternoon and, going into the final five days, the track was showing a slight profit on the season. It is necessary for the plant to average a trifle over $130,000 per day to break even and, thanks to Saturday's $424,000 business, the daily average is now just above $160,000.

MENOW WITHOUT A RIDER

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 19.—When asked concerning the suspension of Charles Kurtsinger by the Brookmeade Stable, Hal Price Headley stated today that all he knew was that his nephew, Duval Headley, had talked with Kurtsinger early last week to find out if he could come to Keeneland to ride Menow on Friday and that the following day he received a wire saying he could come.

Headley stated that no jockey has been engaged for Menow in his race here Thursday or for the Blue Grass Stakes and the Kentucky Derby.

The Keeneland stewards received notification from Algernon Daingerfield, assistant secretary of The Jockey Club, that Kurtsinger had been indefinitely suspended by the Brookmeade Stable, his contract employer.

LATEST RECRUIT TO RACING

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 19.—Among new colors to be introduced during the Churchill Downs spring meeting will be those of Herbert N. Lape, Sr., prominent shoe manufacturer of Columbus, Ohio.

For this new patron, A. L. Taylor, well known Ohio horseman, is training the juvenile fillies Golden Shoe and Scioto River. The former is one of the first offspring of Big Brand, which raced with distinction here and at other tracks, while Scioto River is sired by Chatover. Both are eligible to compete in the thirty-eighth running of the Debutante Stakes, down for decision on Friday, May 6.

In the shoe business Lape is associated with W. A. Julian of Cincinnati, treasurer of the United States.

BAY MEADOWS FUTURITY

SAN MATEO, Calif., April 19.—Nominations are now being taken for the 1940 Bay Meadows Futurity, which will mark the third running of that event. The race will have a value of at least $10,000, is open to colts and fillies bred any place in the world, and nomination blanks, which will be off the press in a couple of weeks, will be mailed to Australia, South America, England, France, Canada and other countries. The nominations close about mid-September of this year, therefore those which will be named to race are now sucklings.

The first Bay Meadows Futurity will be decided at the fall meeting this season and will have a value of $10,000 added.

AURORA TURF NOTES

E. E. Russell will have seven horses ready for racing at the meeting opening May 2, headed by Golden Fate, an eight-year-old. Others are Hymarque, King Ruler, Goldkin, Umasee, Van Reveille and King Relief.

That Illinois is rapidly developing into one of the most important racing centers is shown by the fact that more than thirty-five Illinois owners have reserved space for their thoroughbreds at Aurora.

Leo Dandurand, chief of the mutuel department, is due at the track this week.

NEDAYR GIVEN TOP WEIGHT

Kilmer Star Assigned 126 Pounds for Stuyvesant Handicap at Jamaica Saturday.

JAMAICA, N. Y., April 19.—Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Nedayr has been made top weight for the Stuyvesant Handicap, the six furlongs feature of the week-end racing at Jamaica. The son of Neddie—Sunayr is asked to take up his scale weight of 126 pounds, which is in accord with the new weight rule requiring handicaps to start at the scale.

Under this impost the colt is rated six pounds better than anything else, and there are three—Lancashire, Pumpkin and Shoulder Arms—under 120 pounds. Of these, each, with the exception of Pumpkin, is engaged in the Wood Memorial, which is the best prize of the meeting for the three-year-olds. The Kilmer colt has been going along exceedingly well for Crawford at Belmont Park since his arrival on Long Island, and he will probably be seen under silks. There is less chance for the next three in the weights going to the post.

TRIO UNDER 119.

Then, just a pound under, comes Can't Wait, Sir Raleigh and Stormscud, each under 119 pounds. Of these, Stormscud, which races for the Wheatley Stable, was winner the opening day of the meeting and he is fit and ready. Can't Wait has been showing speed in his trials at Belmont Park, and Sir Raleigh had a seasoning by winter racing.

Lavengro, now at Bay Meadows, and the Greentree Stable's Redbreast, are at 118 pounds, and the last-named is the main hope of the stable for the Kentucky Derby. The son of Chicle—Robin's Egg is slated to start in both the Stuyvesant and the Wood Memorial, after which he will be sent to Churchill Downs for the Kentucky Derby. He has been going along nicely for Brennan at Belmont Park and a recent mile in 1:42⅘ indicated his readiness for silks.

The weights scale down to 100 pounds, and indications are that both a large and representative lot will be seen under silks at post time.

Weights for the Stuyvesant Handicap are as follows:

Horse.	Wt.	Horse.	Wt.
Nedayr	126	Regal Sun	110
Lancashire	120	Roar	110

HAVRE DE GRACE NOTES

Jockey Henri Mora, who starred in the saddle during the meeting at Hialeah Park until he suffered a broken collar bone, is here with the stable of Townsend B. Martin and will be seen in silks here. Benny Beach will handle the rider's book.

Schooling classes have been opened at Pimlico in charge of Tom Cropper. Classes will be held from 7 to 10 a. m.

The good sprinter, Appealing, which performed in the Harford Handicap here on Saturday for the Motor City Stable, came out of the number badly lamed and it is doubtful whether the colt will get postward for some time.

L. H. Silver returned from New York, where he purchased the filly Polyata from W. Ziegler, Jr. Polyata will fill the vacancy of the stable caused when Lost Battalion succumbed to shipping fever after arriving from Florida.

Jockey K. Knott will leave for New York late Wednesday to report to trainer H. Burch.

DO YOU KNOW HOW TO HANDICAP HORSES?

. The American Racing Manual of 1938 will instruct you in this fascinating diversion. Examples and tables explaining same are shown. Every requisite for correct handicapping also will be found in this marvelous publication, the only one of its kind in the world.

FOR PARTICULARS, SEE THE AMERICAN RACING MANUAL—PAGE 386

RIVER DOWNS OPENING MAY 4

Cincinnati Track Expected to Stage Highly Successful Meeting.

Track Superintendent Brown Believes Track Will Be Faster Than Ever—Strong Among Arrivals.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 19.—Viewed from every angle, the River Downs Racing Association seems destined to enjoy one of the most brilliant spring meetings in the history of horse racing in the Greater Cincinnati area.

Twenty-three days of racing will be held at the beautiful race course, located on the banks of the Ohio River, starting Wednesday, May 4, and ending on Monday, May 30. The first running of the Decoration Day Handicap for three-year-olds and upward, at a mile and a sixteenth, which will carry a value of $2,500 in added money, is the feature attraction on the closing day program.

The River Downs management was cheated of a chance to race last spring because of the havoc wrought at the track by the record-breaking Ohio River Valley flood.

EXPEND $175,000.

Far from discouraged by the amount of damage the swollen waters of the Ohio River did to the track property, officials of the River Downs Racing Association remodeled the entire plant last summer at a cost of more than $175,000, and now it is rated one of the most beautiful race tracks in the country.

Check of early reservations for stall room reveals many of the fleetest thoroughbreds in the country will be stabled at the Downs when the meeting gets under way May 4.

J. Baumbach, who is rated as one of the best trainers in the turf game, has decided to race his powerful string of horses at the Downs and he is expected to arrive the latter part of the week.

Zevson, a son of the world famous Zev, which raced the great In Memoriam to a nose decision, is the big gun of the Baumbach stable. Zevson has won many big stakes during the past two years, and he also ran second to War Admiral in the Widener Handicap at Hialeah Park six weeks ago.

TRACK IN SHAPE.

Track superintendent J. O. Brown has whipped the racing strip into first-class condition, and it is believed that the track will be faster this year than it has been for several years.

Edward P. Strong, managing director of the River Downs track arrived upon the scene Monday morning and immediately plunged into the task of completing preparations for the twenty-three day spring session opening Wednesday, May 4, during which six stakes will be decided.

"The track never looked better and with a few minor changes left prior to the opening the River Downs track will be one of the finest in the country," stated the genial official after a personal inspection of the grounds.

More than 400 horses are already on the grounds and each hour brings many more and the track has become a beehive of activity. Every available stall is expected to be filled before the opening bugl blows.

More thoroughbreds of the higher quality fill the many stalls at the spacious Ohio River track and best grade of sport ever offered local fans is assured.

Judge Joseph A. Murphy, director of racing at the local track as well as Thistle Down and Detroit is expected to arrive here Wednesday and Thursday to take up his duties.

JAMAICA TURF NOTES

Bill Ryan arrived from Chicago and will remain for the season.

John F. Curry was on hand for the opening. He rarely missed a Maryland or Metropolitan opening in many years.

The state racing commission was represented by Herbert Bayard Swope and John Sloan.

W. Houghton of the government forces was on hand with a squad of men seeking counterfeit money passers dealing in the five- and ten-dollar denominations.

Kenneth Force spent the best part of the winter in Bermuda. He rode My Purchase to victory in the Royal Mail Cup, outstanding feature of the racing season on the island. My Purchase was bought last fall by Harry King, a well-to-do merchant of Hamilton. The Bermuda track is a grass course, one-half mile in circumference.

Jack McPherson reported that his consistent Glastonbury is in the stud at Major Hocky's Belair, Md., farm. The so nof Sir Gallahad III. was bred to twelve mares this spring.

Bobby Gaylor arrived from San Francisco and reported that Bill Knapp will remain on the Pacific Coast for the summer. Knapp will take over a stable of horses owned by a motion picture magnate to train this year.

T. J. Healey will remain in Miami until next week, according to word received by George Burke Monday.

Jockey C. Corbett canceled his day's engagements. He reported ill to the clerk of scales, Al Burlen.

The veteran Roscoe Troxler demonstrated Monday morning that he had not lost any of his cunning at the starting post. Mounted on Consul, he outbroke Arcaro, on Black Look, and Gilbert, on a three-year-old, from the gate. Troxler collected his wagers, modest ones, from the younger generation. The bet was the outcome of a discussion of the relative merits of Gilbert and Arcaro leaving the gate, and Troxler said that he still could outbreak either of them and then proceeded to demonstrate his ability.

Joe Healey arrived from Florida and will remain for the season.

The stake nominations for the Aqueduct meeting closed and, according to Frank Riley, were well patronized.

Val Crane arrived from Chicago and will remain for the meeting. His horses are trained by Ed Trotter.

CUT INGLEWOOD ADMISSIONS

Coast Fans Favored by Scale of Prices to Be Effective.

Meeting at New Hollywood Park Course Opening June 10—Installing Five Soda Fountains.

INGLEWOOD, Calif., April 19.—Not in the memory of the oldest racegoer will thoroughbred enthusiasts be given a greater break for their money than in the scale of prices for the initial thirty-three day meeting of the Hollywood Turf Club, June 10 to July 23, released today by general manager Jack Mackenzie. They follow: grandstand, $1, plus tax, $1.10; clubhouse, $2.50, plus tax, $2.75; season box (six seats), $150, plus tax, $165; season tickets to clubhouse, $50, plus tax, $55.

Mackenzie not only has chopped fifty-five cents from the time-honored $3.30 for the clubhouse, but has begun an innovation that will be the talk of the race world.

SEASON TICKETS.

In other words, he has introduced the sale of season tickets to the public for the clubhouse for the sum of $50, plus a $5 tax. In simpler language, the public saves $35.75 for the season, or $1.09 a day. In addition to the unusually small charge, those holding season tickets will have free parking privileges.

According to the advance sale, the season ticket innovation promises to surpass the fondest hopes of the Hollywood Turf Club officials.

The racing season starts Friday, June 10, running for thirty-three days, except on Sundays and Mondays. Races will be held, however, on Monday, July 4. Post time will be 2 p. m.

A new departure for race tracks will be five regular soda fountains on the grounds.

The stewards and judges, as well as the camera for photo finishes, and the public address system, will be located on the roof of the new stand.

KEENELAND TURF NOTES

Apprentice Sammy Williams, one of the most promising youngsters developed during the winter in Florida, arrived from Evansville, Ind., and will do the riding for the stable of W. U. Ridenour. The services of the youngster have been obtained from J. C. Ellis, contract employer of the Texas youth.

Jerry Goldblatt arrived from his home in Cincinnati and will remain in Lexington for the balance of the Keeneland meeting. Goldblatt is without horses at present, but anticipates assembling a string for racing during the summer.

Charles Grayson, who lost Fritz Hallam via the claiming route Saturday, returned from Latonia, Monday morning where he took up Brush Handle, which he wintered at Latonia and placed the plater in training at Keeneland.

Beckham Stivers will take a division of the stable he has at Keeneland to River Downs at the close of the local season, and R. L. Stivers will campaign the others at Churchill Downs. Don Moss, three-year-old gelding in the R. L. Stivers string, is reported as much improved, having developed a cough soon after his arrival from Hot Springs.

Registration blanks for Churchill Downs were passed out at Keeneland Monday morning and there was a great demand, thus indicating the majority of stables now quartered at Keeneland, will be transferred to the Louisville track for the opening of the season in the Falls City.

Trainer M. H. Goldstein, of the Lewin stable, transferred five of the six horses he has stabled at the Fair Grounds to River Downs Sunday. He was forced to leave the filly Cautivo at the trotting track due to a high temperature. Apprentice A. Sylvester, a maiden jockey, accompanied the stable to the Cincinnati track.

Having returned to his farm at Erlanger, Ky., after the victory of Main Man in the Phoenix Handicap opening day, J. B. "Rome" Respess put in his appearance in Lexington Tuesday and plans to remain here for the balance of the season.

Tom Sanford, who has the Brown Hotel Stable of J. Graham Brown quartered at Churchill Downs, is bringing several horses here. Sanford returned to Louisville after taking in the first Saturday's program and arranging for the stabling of his horses.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin H. Kidder of Louisville and Chicago were among the large delegation of fans to come over from the Falls City.

Andre Gumpere, an attache of River Downs, is here in the interest of the Cincinnati meeting which opens May 4.

Three horses owned by the Brown Hotel Stable, and in charge of trainer Tom Sanford, arrived by van from Churchill Downs, where they were wintered. The group consists of two juveniles and a three-year-old which will be campaigned here during the balance of the season. The youngsters are Hello Cap and Quick Quick, while the three-year-old is Doctor Tim.

Apprentice G. C. Fisher was an arrival from Columbus, Ohio, and attached himself to the stable trained by C. R. Valentine and will remain in Lexington until the close of the Keeneland meeting, then accompanies Valentine to Beulah Park.

The pretentious division of the Valdina outfit, now quartered at Keeneland, will be transferred to the Downs at the close of the current meeting and includes Sir Emerson, Boulder, Valted, Valdina, Belton, Eagle Pass, Teddy's Comet, Diavolo Boy, Sortie's Son, Check In, Holton, Range Dust, Viscounty, Bienchance, Wafer, Blue Su, Vampire, Vividity, Flying Monica and Viragin.

August "Sarge" Swenke, trainer of the horses owned by A. R. Born of Chicago, left for Baltimore, Md., Monday night to attend the burial of Dr. James V. Clarken of that city. The deceased was one of the best-known eye, ear, nose and throat specialists in the East and numbered many owners, trainers and jockeys among his closest friends.

Among the early applicants for stall reservations at Churchill Downs are G. C. Scott and Ralph McIlvain.

NEDAYR IN GOOD CONDITION

Kilmer Star Demonstrates Fitness by Useful Mile Workout.

Gallops Route at Belmont Park in 1:42—First Start of Year in Wood Memorial.

JAMAICA, N. Y., April 19.—Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Nedayr, which had all his early preparation for the new season on the farm, was brought up to Long Island a well-advanced colt. That was evidenced at Belmont Park Sunday morning when the son of Neddie was sent along a handy mile in 1:42. He was a late development of last year, but when he rounded out his season by winning both the Pimlico Futurity and the Walden Handicap at Pimlico in November he at once became a Derby prospect of importance.

All through this Sunday move the colt was in hand. There is no doubt of his readiness for the races. Like Fighting Fox, his first objective of importance is the Wood Memorial, to be run April 30.

Another of the Kentucky Derby colts shown Sunday morning at Belmont Park was Redbreast, from the Greentree Stable. This fellow was sent along for a mile by "Bill" Brennan, and he also went handily in 1:42⅘. He is also eligible for the Wood, and on this gallop promises to be fit and ready for that $20,000 prize.

IMPORTED MARES.

These were the most important moves for the Kentucky Derby eligibles over the week-end on Long Island, though several others were galloped along slowly.

Yesterday morning Can't Wait was breezed three furlongs in :39, which suggests a more ambitious trial before long. Then at Aqueduct Sunday Mrs. Val Crane's Cauteleaux, also an eligible for the Derby but not eligible for the Wood, went a handy seven furlongs in 1:32, but he is not rated among the eligibles as having a remote chance of being sent to the post at Churchill Downs.

It was a quiet week-end for the Fitzsimmons hopes at Aqueduct, though yesterday morning he had the filly Anaflame out and she went an impressive seven furlongs in 1:29.

HAVRE DE GRACE NOTES

For a consideration that was not made public, A. E. Munyre acquired the five-year-old gelding Mariato from J. Emerson and the gelding performed in the sixth race Monday for his new owner. The deal was transacted early Monday and trainer Phil Reuter has been retained.

Officials of the Harford Agricultural and Breeders' Association were informed that Duval Headley is shipping Bourbon King here from Keeneland Park to fulfill his engagement in the Chesapeake Stakes, to be run here next Saturday. Jockey Raymond Workman, contract rider for A. G. Vanderbilt, has accepted the offer to ride the colt which will reach here Wednesday.

Condition books for the Suffolk Downs meeting in New England and the Lincoln Felds meeting in Illinois, can be obtained from racing secretary Charles J. McLennan at Havre de Grace.

The schooling list was augmented by the additions of Higher Cloud, Minstrel Star and Virginia Boy after their unruly actions recently.

Jockey Harry Richards has been engaged to handle Chaps in the Chesapeake Stakes, $15,000 added number for three-year-olds, to be decided Saturday at this course.

Eleven horses owned by Townsend B. Martin, headed by the good three-year-olds, Cravat and Galapas, arrived at Pimlico in charge of trainer Walter C. Burrows.

Edward J. Brennan returned from Jamaica, where he spent Saturday circulating among the horsemen in New York regarding the supplementary closing of the Preakness Stakes.

B. F. Whitaker, who races a fashionable stable headed by Mythical King and Crepe, has purchased the contract on jockey Kenneth McCombs from J. Y. Christmas. The deal was completed late Saturday at Havre de Grace, and the lad joined his new employer after the signing of papers. The amount given to terminate the transaction was not made public.

BEULAH PARK TURF NOTES

J. Goodwin has arrived with his stable from Tropical Park for Beulah Park's spring meeting, from May 4 to May 30, inclusive. The Goodwin shipment included Broom Tour, Don Gomez, Gentleman Jack, Bold General, Rocky Mount, Ann Brock, Zump and Maple Barbara.

Trainer G. Wedell brought Cosmic Ray and Lum Joy from Havana. Other arrivals from that point included L. Daly with Remeilla and Flocking; C. Lemon with Ante Bellum, and My Peter and H. Sobel with The Corner.

The Rew, five-year-old bay gelding owned by Miss M. Hodge, died here of shipping fever, contracted en route from New Orleans. One of the most consistent runners of the winter meeting at the Fair Grounds, The Rew was in the money in sixteen of eighteen starts, winning in the neighborhood of $3,500. Although the loss of The Rew will be keenly felt, trainer Dave Sodders will have a formidable stable to campaign for Miss Hodge. In the string are Colorist, Dame Grundy, Pineaway and Amasin.

Distance races are expected to be very popular at the spring meeting, May 4 to 30, inclusive. A number of good routers are on hand, including Legal Gamble, Miss Adele, Cabotin, Dusty Lane and many others.

PEARSON HEADS SCHOOL GROUP

Irving F. Pearson, county superintendent of the Rockford, Ill., schools, has been elected executive secretary of the Illinois Educational Association. The organization has a membership of 44,000 school teachers residing throughout the state.

"PLAY ADAMS" NEW CHANT

America's Champion Rider to Show Skill at Inglewood.

Star Jockey and Family Live in Modern Trailer—Has Power in Massive Shoulders.

INGLEWOOD, Calif., April 19.—'(When in doubt, play Adams." This piece of advice will be uttered by race enthusiasts in the paddock, grandstand and clubhouse during the initial thirty-three day summer meeting of the Hollywood Turf Club, which begins June 10, when America's current jockey champion, the diminutive Johnny Adams, comes here to fulfill engagements.

"Shorty" Adams is probably the most consistent rider in the country. His amazing riding at Bay Meadows April 7, when he drove in six consecutive winners, definitely stamps him as a "jockey in a million."

A clean cut, likeable youth, Adams is one of the hardest working race pilots in the sport. He has only been in the saddle a few years but already his exploits have won him lasting fame on the turf.

The 23-year-old jockey is married and a father. He and his family live in a modern trailer which he moves from track to track. He is serious about his work and has begun to lay aside a "nest egg."

A few years ago Adams was a farm boy. He saw plenty of horses then but always from behind a plough. He started his riding career in the "bush league"—the so-called "bull pens" and county fair circuits.

PERFECT STATURE.

But Johnnie had something that has since proven to be a big help in his chosen profession. His stature is perfect for a good race rider. Standing only five feet high and tilting the scales at between 100 and 105 pounds, Adams' physical structure is such that all his weight and power is in his massive shoulders. He has big, powerful hands—one of the decided attributes of a jockey.

Physical makeup, however important, is not the main requirements of a top-notch saddlesmith. A jockey also must possess competitive courage, a brain capable of working overtime if it need be, and the "will to win." The last named requisite is that indefineable something that all champions must have, and, needless to say, Adams has it in copious quantities.

Born in Iola, Kan., in 1915, Johnny lived the life of the average middle western youngster until he decided to carve out a career for himself in racing. He served his apprenticeship on the "small time" tracks and showed a lot of promise right from the start.

He had a good year in 1936 while engaged at Longacres, Riverside Park and other comparative minor league ovals.

WON CHAMPIONSHIP.

Last year Adams won the jockey championship of the entire nation, riding 260 winners. It was the second best year's wins in twenty-five years, being surpassed only by jockey Westrope, then an apprentice, who won the crown in 1933 with 301. Adams was the first full-fledged jockey to win the title since Ivan Parke took the honors in 1923. In the intervening period, the championship had always gone to apprentice riders who had the advantage of a five-pound "bug" allowance.

In accomplishing this record, Adams took top riding honors at Alamo Downs, Arlington Downs, Oaklawn Park, Riverside Park, Longacres, Playfair Park, Bay Meadows, Tanforan and Santa Anita.

When the young Kansan rode Miss Amie, Danke Schon, Rock X., Dr. Spoon, Monsweep and Undulate to victory at Bay Meadows a few weeks ago he entered the immortal list of race riders who have won six races in one day.

Adams' name will now go down in the record books along with that of dusky "Monk" Overton, who accomplished the feat at Washington Park in 1891; James Lee, another colored pilot, who did it at Churchill Downs in 1907; apprentice C. Turner at Charleston, S. C., in 1912, H. Phillips at Reno in 1916, Earl Sande at Havre de Grace in 1919, Alf Robertson at Havana in 1928, Albert Adams at Marlboro in 1930, B. Haas at Thistle Down in 1933, and J. Sylvester, who rode seven winners out of eight at the small Ravenna Park, Ohio, meeting in 1930.

CHURCHILL DOWNS NOTES

While trainer George Morris is racing Say When, Blue Star and Hasty Ruth at Keeneland, he has four others at Churchill Downs. All the horses are owned by G. C. Scott and those here are Pertladdie, King Joy, Kitty's Rival and Hoosier's Pride.

William Smith, formerly associated with Albert Dunne, was a recent arrival at the Downs with the horses Fair Flag and Lovely Sister.

Homer Pardue, whose colors have been seen here for the past several years, is preparing two horses for the coming meeting. They are Par-Queen and Par-Joyce.

A. B. Letellier was here last week, having come from his home in New Orleans but left Saturday to meet his son-in-law Anthony Pelleteri, at Keeneland. Letellier has several horses here under the care of Jack Hodgins who also is training a number of thoroughbreds for Pelleteri and M. L. Emerich.

The horses E. R. Moulder has at Douglas Park are Glenpool, Barbara A., Pebble M., and Ada Hill. They came here from Oaklawn Park.

John Oglesby, with Marcie S. and Playdema, was another recent arrival at the Beechmont track following a Hot Springs campaign.

Max Hirsch advised Churchill Downs officials that Lancashire, owned by A. J. Sackett was definitely out of the Kentucky Derby.

M. J. Brennan, Kentucky Democratic power and resident of Louisville, was a visitor at Churchill Downs Sunday morning. Brennan just returned to his home following a rest in Florida and his friends will be happy to know he is enjoying improved health.

QUALIFIES FOR STAKES

Dauber Impressses Eastern Fans in Havre de Grace Victory.

DuPont Racer Comes From Behind to Win Hampton Roads Purse —Blind Eagle Second.

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., April 19.—Sporting the silks of William DuPont, Jr.'s, Foxcatcher Farms, and making his first start as a three-year-old on eastern soil, Dauber, second to Maxwell Howard's Stagehand in the rich Santa Anita Derby on the West Coast, qualified for the leading three-year-old stakes this season and the Kentucky Derby, when he defeated three other aspirants for the Kentucky classic, and one other of his age in the Hampton Roads, an allowance race, sixth on the card that was the principal offering at Havre de Grace today.

Carrying 113 pounds, and handled by his regular rider, Maurice Peters, the well-built son of Pennant—Ship o' War, scored convincingly, when he came from far back of his four opponents to take the measure of Mrs. E. Denemark's Blind Eagle. Third went to Bunny Baby, the lone filly in the race, who gave Wise Fox a stiff argument in the Louisiana Derby, while Crepe, a five-ply winner this year in formidable company, easily led home Chaps, the only other starter and a Derby candidate.

GAINS SUPPORTERS.

The victory of Dauber was his first at the age of three, and the effort gained him many supporters for the May 7 race at Churchill Downs, when he reached the finish of the mile and seventy yards winner by two lengths. He ran the distance, over the rough track, in 1:45⅕, and the manner in which he ran down his opposition gives belief that he will find the longer route in the Derby more to his liking. Dauber ruled at odds-on for the Hampton Roads, and his score was exceedingly popular.

The Derby hopes of Bomar Stable's Billmar went up into thin air when he proved a dismal failure in the fifth offering and was beaten by three other members of his age, with Red Pepper scoring for A. G. Vanderbilt. Leading every step of the journey as jockey Raymond Workman guided the flashy Vanderbilt colt over the rough racing surface, Red Pepper reached the end to beat W. F. Hitt's Spring Meadow by five lengths while Fair Company was a length better than the Bomar colt as he took third.

SEA SHELL REPEATS.

Two-year-olds were engaged in the initial offering at four and one-half furlongs under claiming conditions and it gave Sea Shell, from the Millsdale Stable, her second consecutive score when she triumphed in a hard drive. Ridden by jockey E. Smith to dominate all of the running, the daughter of Jean Valjean drew out to lead Walli and Polly Fair in the early stages, then withstood a hard drive in the last eighth to beat Barker, from the Shandon Farm, by a neck. Third went to Tin Devil, of the T. J. Hill barn, and he was a length and one-half back of the two leaders as he closed in from a rear position.

Eleven mediocre sprinters met in the third, a sprint at six furlongs, and it gave Be Jabbers, from the H. L. Straus barn, her racing diploma when she scored in convincing fashion. It was her first start of the season and she ruled at liberal odds and there was little to the contest when she flashed into the lead to spread-eagle her field. Ridden by jockey V. Villalobo, to open four lengths on her nearest opponent in the early stages, the H. L. Straus miss reached the end of the journey six lengths in advance of Town Car, one of the better fancied starters, while Calamega, at good odds, was five lengths away to take third.

Another upset occurred in the fourth when Night Intruder came through the winner to defeat nine other three-year-olds. Racing for Mose Lowenstein, who obtained the plater via the claiming route in his last appearance, the ebony-coated son of Sickle captured honors in a drive over Mrs. J. B. Bond's No Ending, with Petit Jean taking third as the better-fancied Cogie led the others.

Emmet Potts reported that Grand Girl dropped a filly foal by Boatswain at Holly Beach Farm, near Annapolis, Md. Grand Girl will be bred back to Kantar.

ONTARIO SPRING DATES

TORONTO, Ont., April 19.—The Canadian Sports and Daily Racing Form has it on good authority that the Thorncliffe Park Racing and Breeding Association has abandoned plans for a fourteen-day meeting this fall and will revert to the schedule of spring and fall meetings on the dates originally chosen. It is understood that the Orpen interests are agreeable to revert to their original dates to permit Thorncliffe to open on Monday, May 30, and run to the following Monday, June 6.

The new spring schedule, or rather the old spring schedule revived, would therefore be as follows: Woodbine Park, May 21 to 28 Thorncliffe Park, May 30 to June 6; Long Branch, June 8 to June 15, and Dufferin Park, June 18 to June 25.

IRISH STEW THE WINNER

(Special Cablegram.)

EPSOM, England, April 19.—The Great Metropolitan Stakes, run over the curving course of about two miles and a quarter here today, was won by Miss B. Jameson's Irish Stew. He defeated the Aga Khan's Dahrampur by one length, with H. Lester's Holne Chase third, a neck away. There were thirteen starters. Pat Maher had the mount on the winner, which carried 113 pounds, including a five-pound penalty for winning the Thatcham Long Distance Handicap, two miles and one-furlong at Newbury early this month. In that event, Irish Stew beat Holne Chase by half a length.

PAINT "JOCKEY" IN COLORS

Lawn Ornament at Aurora to Be Decorated for Derby Winner.

Owners' Combination to Adorn Figure After Running of $12,000 Added Feature Each Year.

AURORA, Ill., April 19.—The Illinois Derby is just a "babe in swaddling clothes," so far as tradition is concerned. The Aurora feature is a six-year-old "infant" that has developed greatly in interest and value since it's start back in 1933.

In future years, however, the now $12,000 added value stake will acquire color and tradition and grow to rate among the nations important events.

Officials of the Fox Valley course have started a custom in connection with the mile and a furlong event that is sure to add to the tradition of the Derby. The little iron jockey on the clubhouse lawn, has been given a new coat of paint in the orange, chocolate and white colors of Mrs. Ethel V. Mars' Milky Way Farm, winner of the Derby last year. It will be an annual custom to adorn the figure with the Derby victor's colors.

The jockey has an interesting little story in itself, aside from it's new importance. Way back, thirty years ago, in the horse and buggy days it was used as a hitching post for sulkies, buggies and saddle horses on the Wild Rose Farm of Val Crane at St. Charles, Illinois.

PRESENT FROM CRANE.

About ten years ago the figure was turned over to the Aurora track as a present from Crane, and placed on the clubhouse grounds.

The Derby, scheduled to climax the west side twenty-four-days meeting on May 28, has more than doubled in value since it's inception. Starting out as a $5,000 added stake, officials of the club have boosted the purse to its present value and now it rates among the important spring events of turfdom.

To stir your memory on this score look at the winners of following Derbies; 1934, Mata Hari, then rated as one of the best fillies; 1935, Sun Portland, which routed a Kentucky Derby favorite, Roman Soldier; 1936, Rushaway, the sturdy horse that travelled to Latonia the following day to win the Latonia Derby, and last year, Mrs. Mars' Case Ace.

The new "silks" on the metal jockey is not an original idea. A number of American tracks honor their stake winners with such decorations. The custom adopted by Aurora, however, is the first in Chicago and is sure to add to the "color" literally speaking, that makes for tradition and interest.

POETIC AMONG JUVENILES

Full Brother to Paradisical Added to Stable of Axton and Friedberg at Churchill Downs.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 19.—The two-year-old Poetic, a full brother to the splendid race mare Paradisical is among three of that age recently added to the stable of E. D. Axton and H. Friedberg at Churchill Downs. The other juveniles, all of which were brought in from the farm by trainer Jack Hanover since his arrival from Florida, are Horace B. and Montsin. The latter is a bay daughter of Ormont and Cousin Ethel, therefore a full sister to Ethelmont. Horace B. is a gelding by Monk's Way and Mary R.

Paradisical's young brother has a chestnut coat with a blaze face and one white stocking. Poetic does not greatly resemble Paradisical, and his conformation leaves something to be desired, but Hanover believes he will make a very useful performer. His illustrious older sister, owned by Ike J. Collins, has been retired and will be bred this spring. Paradisical and Poetic are by In Memoriam and Madrigal.

RECENT ADDITIONS.

The three-year-olds Isolene and Nicella were other recent additions to the Axton-Friedberg string. Like the younger horses they wintered at the farm.

A fine crop of 1938 foals is reported at the farm by trainer Hanover, who recently inspected the new arrivals and also the nine yearlings at the place. Sires represented among this season's foals, of which ten are scampering about the pastures, are Chance Play, Balladier, Clock Tower, Hadagal and Bostonian. Hanover has decided against any further attempt to train Bolo, and he may be used for limited breeding purposes.

Axton and Friedberg, whose blue and white colors have been seen at many of the country's leading tracks, are tobacco merchants of this city, and, as sportsmen, are much interested in thoroughbreds. Last year they sent a number of their mares to some of the most fashionable stallions, with a view to improving the quality of their stock. With only a few exceptions they race all of the horses they raise.

Their trainer, a former jockey, is confident the new breeding policy will give the stable a greater importance in racing.

LATE PREAKNESS NOMINEE

BALTIMORE, Md., April 19.—Can't Wait, which carries the silks of the Californian Myron Selznick, is the second supplementary nomination to the Preakness, Pimlico officials announced yesterday. Selznick paid $1,500 to make the horse eligible. Can't Wait, rated one of the better three-year-olds, is also eligible for the Kentucky Derby and the Wood Memorial Stakes. He is now at Jamaica, training for the Wood. Can't Wait raced creditably in California the past winter. The first supplementary nomination to the Preakness was Sun Egret.

APPOINT FLOYD McKENNEY

SAN MATEO, Calif., April 19.—Floyd McKenney, well known San Francisco racing official, has been appointed placing judge at the new Inglewood race track. McKenney was notified of his appointment by Ed Soule, director of racing at the new plant, who was a visitor here Saturday afternoon.

MENOW'S MUDDY TRACK WORK

Headley Colt Breezes One Mile Under Restraint in 1:49.

Stands Alone Takes Honors for Trial Gallops at Lexington—Bull Lea's Training Completed.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 19.—Despite a muddy track, Kentucky Derby and Blue Grass Stakes eligibles had a busy session at Keeneland Park this morning. Although his work was not of a fast order, Hal Price Headley's Menow came in for the most attention when he visited the track at an early hour for a mile spin. Going along well in hand throughout, the home-bred son of Pharamond II.—Alcibiades breezed a mile in 1:49. It was his final "prep" before his engagement in the Mereworth Purse on Thursday. The fractions were :26⅗, :52⅗ and 1:20⅗.

Although he won the Trial Handicap in easy fashion, Menow has not been tested at a distance greater than six and one-half furlongs, and as the Mereworth will be run over one mile and one-sixteenth, that race probably will decide whether he will continue to train for the Kentucky Derby. In Thursday's feature he is expected to engage far more stronger competition than he met in the Trial. Warren Wright's Bull Lea will be one of the members of the field, and the son of Bull Dog has had several mile drills.

WORKS HANDILY.

From a time standpoint James C. Stone's Stands Alone was the star of the morning training. The son of Blondin ran a mile in 1:41⅗, handily, after stepping the half mile in :49⅗ and three-qutrters in 1:15⅗.

Stands Alone was a well-beaten fourth in the Old Kenny Purse last Saturday, but trainer Henry Loudon was not satisfied with the race and he, too, will be a starter on Thursday.

Mrs. George B. Cox' Congressman, a Derby and Blue Grass Stakes eligible, breezed a half mile in :53⅘.

Excepting an "opener" over the private track at Calumet Farm, Bull Lea has completed his training for the Mereworth Purse. Trainer Frank Kearns is satisfied with his condition and is eagerly awaiting the colt's 1938 debut.

opening dash over the Headley course. The gelded son of Royal Minstrel and Red Red Rose had to be hard ridden by Porter Roberts to outgame J. D. Weil's Little Pinkey by a nose as Hal Price Headley's Grape Vine was another length and a half away. Arboreal was fourth among the dozen starters.

COPY CAT GRADUATES.

Hal Price Headley's Copy Cat, a full brother to Larranaga and an eligible for the Kentucky Derby, graduated from the maiden ranks in his second outing of the season in the second event, at six furlongs. In gaining a double for himself, jockey Roberts had to hustle the son of Apprehension and Garden of Allah II. along all the way to defeat Calumet Farm's Volo Snow by a neck. J. O. Keene's Don Cossack was five lengths away in third place and well before Nutrush and the seven other non-winning three-year-olds.

Range Dust, swift-moving chestnut son of Neddie—Sun Affinity, from the Valdina Farms, made it two straight victories when he took the measure of Express by a half length in a driving finish in the Woodvale Purse, a dash over the Headley course, which was third on the card. Batter, favorite in the field of eight which competed, finished in third place. Strongly handled by jockey Earl Steffen, Range Dust collared Express after heading into the home lane and forged to the front. However, after gaining the lead the Valdina colorbearer had to extend himself to the utmost in order to retain his advantage to the end. It was virtually a two-horse duel all the way.

Leading all the way, Shining Heels, owned by A. L. and Mrs. C. H. Ferguson, easily accounted for the fourth race, at six furlongs, defeating Mrs. Edward Haughton's Bustle by three lengths, as Hal Price Headley's Fountain Head, the favorite, was another two and a half lengths away. Sister Polly was fourth in the field of a dozen $2,000 plater three-year-olds.

TEST NEW BOARD AT DOWNS

Board Not Entirely Completed—Horns for Public Address System Already Installed.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 19.—The electrically operated odds board, a part of the gigantic totalizator system being installed at Churchill Downs, has had satisfactory tests the past two days. While not entirely completed, the board, said to be one of the largest of its kind in the world, will be in readiness for the opening of the Downs meeting, a week from Saturday.

The bull horns which will spread the amplified voice over the public address system, were being placed and they were to be tested later in the week. A series of three such horns are mounted in the centerfield, and, according to engineers, the voice of the announcer as it comes out of these, will carry to all parts of the grandstand and lawns and front tiers of the clubhouse.

Within a few days all carpentry work and painting will have been completed, and then will remain only scattered minor jobs and the final cleaning to put the mammoth plant in order for the opening. Next week will see landscape gardeners setting out 40,000-odd plants and shrubs.

KEENELAND AUCTION APRIL 25

Thirty Lots to Be Offered Bidders During Afternoon.

First Vendue Ever Held at New Lexington Track to Be Conducted Next Week —Interest Manifest.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 19.—From E. J. Tranter's Lexington office there was issued today the catalogue for the sale of thoroughbred horses in training, yearlings, brood mares and sucklings, to be held at Keeneland on Monday, April 25, 1938, in the afternoon, there being no racing here on that date. This will be the first sale ever held at Keeneland, and the thirty lots to be offered are far superior to stock ordinarily entered for auction in the spring time in Kentucky.

The estate of the late C. E. "Buddie" Hamilton, of Covington and Cincinnati, will sell Catherine F., Rocky Road and Galadore, horses in training at Keeneland now in charge of Howard Wells. Trainer Wells has a half interest in Galadore. The Hamilton estate also will sell the brood mare For Keeps with a bay filly foal by Dress Parade at foot, and two yearling colts—one by Gallant Sir—For Keeps and another by Jock—Gaffney Lass.

THOMPSON CONSIGNMENT.

Mrs. Charles R. Thompson, as agent for the estate of her late husband, former mayor of Lexington and one of the most popular men in central Kentucky during the last thirty years, will sell three two-year-olds in training in charge of Lee Darnaby at Keeneland, two yearlings and four brood mares with foals at foot. The horses in training are Try Hard, Flying Bonny and Risenfly, and the yearlings are fillies by Bostonian and Jock. The brood mares Drollery, Lady Supreme and Mary T. have foals by Wise Counsellor. The splendid mare Merry Terry, winner of Clipsetta Stakes, is overdue to foal to Hi-Jack.

W. Arnold Hanger is selling four two-year-olds which Tom B. Young has been training for him at Keeneland. They are Bo Bend, Papalinda, Sidout and Silver Horn.

The young trainer, Kenneth Cobb, will sell as agent four two-year-olds—Hastada, Ladyheels, Shoofly and an unnamed daughter of Chatover—Lucy Swift.

C. A. Marone is selling his splendid brood mare My Carolyne (dam of Our Carolyne) and her bay filly foal by Mirafel.

Mrs. A. E. Reuben is sending down from her Hasty House Farms at Toledo, Ohio, the three-year-old chestnut gelding Discriminator, by Display—Virginia B. Discriminator, like Play Here, a two-year-old son of Playtime, which Wiley Bros. of Midway, are offering, has never been on a race track and is broken only to ride.

DAVIS SELLING MARES.

Horace N. Davis, as agent, is selling the brood mares Affection, Carola and Marmitina, all in foal, the latter to Cohort.

S. O. Richardson III., of Toledo, Ohio, is selling Back Chat, a three-year-old daughter of Blue Larkspur from Busy Tongue, which Charles Gentry has been training at Keeneland.

The sale will begin promptly at 2 o'clock with Doc Bond as auctioneer and Thomas B. Cromwell as representative of E. J. Tranter, who is busy at his office in New York, and will be unable to come to Kentucky at this time. The sale will be held rain or shine. There will be ample accommodations for all who will attend.

The brood mares, foals and yearlings to be offered by Mrs. Charles R. Thompson are at Melrose Farm on Leestown Pike, adjoining Lexington Cemetery. . . . Horace N. Davis' mares are at his Blue Grass Heights Farm on the Old Frankfort Pike. . . . C. E. Hamilton estate's mare, foal and yearlings are at Dr. Charles Hagyard's Greenridge Farm on Paris Pike, and C. A. Marone's My Carolyne and her foal are at Dr. Marius Johnstone's Montrose Farm on Bryan Station Pike. The horses in training are at Keeneland in charge of Howard Wells, Lee Darnaby and Tom B. Young, respectively.

Howard horses broke at the stand, with The Chief on the inside and leading his stablemate by about a neck, which advantage he retained throughout the drill.

RIDERS RATE MOUNTS.

For three-quarters Westrope and Woods rated their mounts under stout holds and then, after hand riding them for a quarter, the horses once more were placed under restraint. For the opening quarter mile they were timed in :26 and after completing four furlongs in :52⅕, they went on to the three-quarters post in 1:19. Then, under mild urging, they put seven furlongs in their wake in 1:31⅘, while the mile was negotiated in 1:43⅗. The ready manner in which the Howard horses greatly quickened their strides to travel the fourth quarter in :24⅗ greatly pleased their young trainer and impressed all of the many horsemen who timed them.

The two three-year-olds came out of their trials in good condition and, after they had cooled out, Sande reiterated intentions of starting The Chief, which has not been to the post since last year, in the Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland a week from Thursday, all hinging on no interruption in his training here.

Should Sande decide to pass up the Blue Grass Stakes, he still has another opportunity to run The Chief and also Stagehand in the Derby Trial Stakes, at a mile, here on the Tuesday before the Derby. Stagehand is not eligible for the Blue Grass.

LEADING MONEY-WINNING OWNERS

The Howards, Maxwell and Charles S., no relation, are very much in the hunt for money-winning honors among the owners campaigning stables this year. At the current writing Maxwell Howard, of Dayton, Ohio, has almost a $100,000 lead over the Pacific Coast Howard, the respective totals being $139,500 and $67,070. With $100,000 offers for big races flying all over the landscape this year, there is no way of predicting the outcome of the race. Maxwell Howard has the brilliant Stagehand, winner of the Santa Anita Handicap and Derby, racing in his colors, and Charles S. Howard has Seabiscuit. Right on the heels of the two leaders is Samuel D. Riddle and his War Admiral. Stagehand has the richest opportunities in front of him, and if he should make a clean sweep of this year's three-year-old specials, Maxwell Howard is in front to stay for the remainder of the season. Following are the ten leading American money-winning owners, the records including from January 1 up to and including the racing of April 18.

KEENELAND TURF NOTES

Despite adverse track conditions schooling was conducted Tuesday morning out of the Headley Course chute by starter William Hamilton's assistants. A number of two-year-olds received lessons at the gate, as only two members of the older division are on the schooling list thus far.

Amateur riders will be an added attraction at Keeneland Friday afternoon. The race scheduled is over a distance of a mile and one-sixteenth and designed for four-year olds and upward and is expected to bring out some of the best amateur reinsmen in this section.

Frank J. Kearns, trainer for the Calumet Farm stable of Warren Wright, has moved into his new quarters at Calumet Farm, which were recently outfitted for him.

The Kentucky State Racing Commission license committee granted a license to apprentice J. Litrell and the youngster will be seen in colors at Keeneland for the first time. Litrell is under contract to James Everman, Kentucky turfman.

Manhasset Stable's Roman Hero turned in an excellent performance to win his debut over a band of other highly regarded colts and geldings in the third. Second to the chestnut son of Pompey and Nancy Dyer was Bill Gallagher's Royal Taste, with River Edge Farm's Capulet third, and Jock Whitney's heavily-backed King Cotton fourth. Over a muddy track, the winner ran the five furlongs in 1:01⅕ under Sammy Renick. The race was a thriller from start to finish.

Sandy Bill, after having been away from the races since the winter of 1936, was brought out in the first race by Hirsch Jacobs and, under a hustling ride by Eddie Arcaro, lasted to be winner over W. C. Winfrey's Speed, while T. P. Morgan's No Nane was a close third. It was the same Sandy Bill of two years ago when he jumped into a long lead, but at the end he was quitting at every stride and, while his winning margin was a length and one-half, Arcaro had to ride with all his power to keep him going to the end.

CITADEL IN FRONT.

There came another score for James Fitzsimmons, the Wheatley Stable and Johnny Longden when Citadel led home a field of three-year-old maiden fillies in the second race. This was a six furlongs dash. Second place went to H. Salomon's Outboard, with Mrs. John Hertz' Lace Reigh taking third from Swing Time.

From a good start Citadel and Swing Time, closely lapped, went into a long lead over the others and they continued to draw out until they were splashing along five lengths ahead of the rest of the field, headed by Mollie Swain and Outboard, racing along like a team. Swing Time hung to Citadel to the stretch turn, but it cost such an effort that she dropped back badly in the straightaway. Citadel was also tiring in the final furlong, though she was still three lengths clear crossing the line. Outboard had closed with good courage and Lace Reigh was racing well to be third, a length and one-half back of the Blue Pete filly.

The fourth race went to Ceiling, ridden by Johnny Gilbert. He carried all the pace, but at the end was doing his best to score by a length over Pendenciero, a South American invader that was starting for the first time in this country. Grey Fluff was another two lengths back, in third place, before Harvesting.

Jockey Tommy Malley signed up with the Woodmere Farm, trained by Ed Feakes, for the season. The horses were wintered in New Jersey.

Edgar Barnes arrived at Belmont Park with a division of the Bomar Stable, to campaign over the Metropolitan tracks.

HAVRE DE GRACE NOTES

Jockey R. L. Vedder was given first call to ride the horses that Frank Garrett trains.

Jockey L. Dupps became indisposed and cancelled his mounts at Havre de Grace Tuesday. The lad expects to resume riding shortly.

Former jockey Henry Erickson has taken over the engagement book of jockey Albert Schmidl, who is under contract to Charles Raynor. Erickson is also handling the book of jockey Eddie Smith.

Anthony Pelleteri, chief trainer of the Millsdale Stable, stopped off at Havre de Grace en route to New York City from New Orleans to inspect a division of the Millsdale Stable horses racing here in charge of Elmer Trueman.

Jockey C. Quattlebaum, who will ride for the H. R. Bain stable in Canada during the summer, was a visitor Tuesday.

Henry Stevens II., of the H. M. Stevens, Inc. checked in from New York to aid in the supervision of the concessions at Havre de Grace.

Word reached here early Tuesday from St. Agnes Hospital in Baltimore, Md., that Allan Sternsdorff, who entered that institution on Sunday, passed away a victim of pneumonia. The deceased was a member of the ground crew employed by starter James F. Milton.

SCENESHIFTER IMPROVES

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 18.—While the horse was quite lame after working last Saturday, trainer Earl Sande has not entirely given up hope of getting Maxwell Howard's Sceneshifter ready for the $5,000 added Clark Handicap, feature of the first day's racing at Churchill Downs Saturday, April 30. The horse has been rather brittle for some time, but Sande had hoped to nurse him along for the Clark and he may get this engagement out of the four-year-old. Sceneshifter was somewhat improved Sunday.

WINN INSPECTS DOWNS

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 19.—Upon his return from Chicago, Col. M. J. Winn made a minute inspection of Churchill Downs and principally the many improvements, following which he stated that he was greatly pleased with changes made and that he believes patrons will obtain more enjoyment when at the famous track on crowded Derby days than in the past, if such were possible. Colonel Winn is especially well satisfied with the new centerfield terraces and underpass and is convinced that under favorable weather conditions many thousands of persons will prefer to see the Kentucky Derby from that section. The centerfield enclosure will include the same accommodations to be found in the general admission section on the grandstand side of the track, such as betting facilities, concessions, rest rooms, etc.

EAGLE PASS TOP WEIGHT

Assigned 122 Pounds in Claiborne Handicap, Today's Chief Offering at Keeneland.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 19.—One of the most attractive offerings of the current Keeneland meeting is on schedule for Wednesday afternoon, with the Claiborne Handicap, a dash at six furlongs, heading the program of seven races arranged for the occasion.

Ten of the fourteen nominations for the Claiborne Handicap appeared in the overnight entries and brings together some of the fleetest sprinters in this section to match strides for the $1,200 purse.

Valdina Farms' four-year-old Eagle Pass drew the top weight assignment and will shoulder 122 pounds, if trainer J. J. Flanigan decides to send his charge postward in the dash. Eagle Pass is to carry two pounds more than Calumet Farm's Crossbow II., which has been given a burden of 120 pounds, while the Tall Trees Stable's Bacon is rated third highest in the esteem of the handicapper, drawing a weight assignment of 118 pounds.

The entire field of ten that is scheduled to contest in the Claiborne Handicap will be making their first appearance of the current session at the Lexington course, but the majority of the scheduled starters engaged in winter racing in Florida, Louisiana, Arkansas and California.

TRAINERS' COMMITTEE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 18.—The western committee of the American Trainers' Association is composed of D. E. Stewart, chairman; Roscoe Goose and Howard Wells, according to announcement by Preston Burch, president of the association. The committee's function is to look after the interests of the association, as well as the horsemen in general. Members of the committee are prominent western horsemen and following the Kentucky season will act for the same organization at the Chicago tracks.
